GUEST CONDUCTORS

SR. BAND—JAMES CASWELL (B. Ed. Music Education, M. Ed) has been active in music ministry and education for over 30 years. An instrumental specialist, James has taught music in Manitoba and BC for 17 years. James is Fine Arts Coordinator at White Rock Christian Academy. James' ensembles have won numerous awards.

JR. BAND—CHARLENE HEINS teaches band from Grades 5 to 12 at Immanuel Christian Schools in Lethbridge. She has taught for more than 20 years. Her bands have received many superior and gold rated performances. Charlene hopes to teach her students to develop the gifts that God has given them, praising Him through making music.

SR. CHOIR—TORRANCE AIRHART (M. Music in Choral Conducting, B. Ed., B. Music) teaches Concert Band, Choir, and Jazz programs at Heritage Christian Academy (HCA) in Calgary. HCA's high school music groups have won numerous awards and trophies. Torri also leads worship at his local church in Airdrie, and is Artistic Director of the social justice choir Harmony through Harmony.

MUSICALE 2019

PRAIRIE COLLEGE | THREE HILLS

REHEARSALS AND WORKSHOPS

- ◆ All students will participate in mass band/choir rehearsals and workshops.
- ◆ All directors and chaperones will attend rehearsals/workshops with their groups.
- ◆ Three rehearsal/workshop groups: Sr. Choir; Sr. Band; Jr. Band.
- ◆ Music will be judged individually and on a non-competitive basis by a single judge who will provide written comments and a rating as well as spend some time in a workshop with the group.
- ◆ At least one adjudication number must be chosen from the repertoire list. Directors are to be prepared to announce groups and selections.
- ◆ Each group will perform two consecutive numbers without interruption.
- ◆ Total time for each group, including setup, performance, judge's comments: 30 minutes
- ◆ Each group is responsible for having its own set-up crew. Music stands will be requested as needed for instrumental groups. Risers, a music stand, and piano will be provided for the choirs.

MUSIC EXPECTATION

Every student is expected to come PERFORMANCE READY before the first rehearsal so that time can be spent on style and interpretation.

- ◆ Choir members are expected to have the music MEMORIZED.
- ◆ Band members are to have all notes and rhythms SECURE.

Repertoires will be sent to your school after registration.
